WOMEN ARE BURNED TO DEATH IN BLAZING HOTEL

Seven Bodies Recovered From Human
Holocaust, in Which Fifteen Meet
Horrible Fate.

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 5.—Fire destroyed the Webb Hotel at Shelton, twenty miles from Tacoma, last night. It is reported that fifteen persons perished. Two women are believed to have been burned to death. All the other victims are believed to be men. Seven bodies have been recovered.

The following are known to have perished:

MISS IVY MAY BAILEY, chambermaid.

WILLIAM HOLMES, master mechanic in Peninsular Railway shops.

PEARL F. LARSON, a boy driver for a butcher.

MRS. Gay of the hotel.

DAN J. HENNESSEY, a logger.

Eight or nine are still unaccounted for.

The hotel was a three-story frame with front and side stairs but no elevator.

The fire was discovered about 1:45 this morning. It had started in the hotel annex probably from a lighted cigar dropped in the sample room. The hotel was a three-story structure. The top floor was occupied by a number of lodgers, but the exact number is not known.

Within a few moments of the time the fire was discovered the hotel was a mass of flames. Screams and cries for help were coming from almost every window and there were dozens of people risking their own lives to help bring out the unfortunates.

The hotel occupied a corner of a block in the center of the city that was solidly built of frame structure.

PIEDMONTERS ARE VOTING OVER DISINCORPORATION

In Piedmont today an election for the purpose of determining whether or not the disincorporation of that place will be ordered by the vote of the people. In progress and at 10 o'clock this afternoon, 125 votes had been cast. There was quite an amount of interest displayed over the contest but the idea prevailed that disincorporation would be ordered by a safe majority.

This opinion was based upon the fact that friends of disincorporation were more numerous around the polls as also because there were more of the residents of the section known to be working and voting for the project at the only election booth in the town, which was located in the office of the Piedmont Improvement Association near the entrance to Piedmont Park.

There are 284 voters registered in the town.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK THE N.Y. EXPRESS

Fiends Draw Spikes
From Rails and Ditch Train.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 5.—Train wreckers were at work last evening on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at Scott Haven and Sutterville, thirty miles east of here. Spikes, it is said, were drawn from the eastbound tracks for the purpose. It is thought, of catching the New York express, which leaves Pittsburgh at 9:30 o'clock in the evening. The wreckers, however, were deceived by the number of freight and passenger trains passing these points last evening and the express got through before the spikes were drawn. The next train following it, a fast freight express for Philadelphia and New York, was not so fortunate. When the big engine struck the rail from which the spikes had been drawn, the rail turned over, derailing the engine and twelve cars. The tank of the engine is in the Troughing river, which is a distance of from 25 to 40 feet below the east-bound track. Five of the derailed cars turned over and were more or less wrecked, the merchandise being scattered along the tracks, while the other cars completely blocked the tracks. The fireman and engineer escaped injury by jumping.

HUSBAND HAS $200,000; WIFE DESTITUTE, SHE SAYS

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—Claiming that her husband is rich and well able to allow her a paltry sum of $5 a week, Mrs. Josephine Hayden swore out a warrant this morning for the arrest of Edwin Hayden of the Hayden Packing Company from whom she is separated.

Mrs. Hayden tells a pitiful story of a rich man's neglect of the wife of whom he is tired. She has been living since the earthquake in the refugee camp at Washington Square and she has now only two days' grace before being ejected from the park.

She has no money and nowhere to go, and the three children, Gladys, 14 years, Raymond, 11, and Selma, 1 year, are actually suffering for some of the necessities of life.

Mrs. Hayden says that her husband, who is the owner of the Hayden Packing Company, is worth in the neighborhood of $200,000, and is abundantly able to support her.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC ASKS PERMIT FOR TROLLEY LINE

Railroad Prepares to Change the Narrow Gauge Into an Electric Road.

A petition was filed with the City Clerk this morning by the South Pacific Coast Railway Company which is the old narrow gauge division of the Southern Pacific, asking for permission to use electricity instead of steam as a motive power on its railroad from the Webster street bridge along Webster street to the corner of Fourteenth street, and around on Fourteenth to the corner of Franklin. And to erect all necessary poles, wires and other necessary appliances for an electric railroad along the line of the road.

The petition recites that in March, 1889, an ordinance was passed by the City Council and approved by the Mayor of Oakland granting to Alfred E. Davis a franchise to construct and maintain a railroad along Webster street for a period of fifty years, and to propel the engines and other rolling stock by steam, or other motive power.

FRANCHISE ASSIGNED.
This franchise was duly assigned to the petitioner, and is now operated and maintained by it.

That in 1888 an ordinance was passed granting the petitioner a franchise to operate a steam railroad along Webster street, and that the petitioner constructed and has for a long time past been

16 CARS WRECKED BY WILD MOB AND WOMEN AND CHILDREN INJURED

Infuriated Structural Iron-Workers Attack Strike-Breakers and Hurl Rocks---250 Policemen Are Called to Quell Fierce Battle.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—The most serious riot since the very first days of the car strike occurred shortly after noon at Fourteenth and Guerrero streets, and lasted over an hour. Before it was finally quelled, more than sixteen cars had been wrecked and a score of people sustained minor injuries.

A small boy threw a brick at a car at the corner of Fourteenth and Guerrero streets. Mounted Officer

Pidgeon remonstrated with him and at this juncture a score of structural iron workers who were returning from the funeral of John S. Peterson, attacked the car, breaking every window and otherwise demolishing it. Officer Pidgeon charged the mob repeatedly and succeeded in keeping them away from the car long enough for the crew to start it on its way. The crowd followed and soon a large number, about 500 men, attacked car 1372 of the Fillmore street line at Sixteenth and Valencia.

GOES TO RESCUE.

Policeman Pidgeon again went to the rescue and endeavored to keep off the angry mob, but they were now drunk with excitement and he found that they were too much for him. As luck would have it, Sergeant Hook and Policeman Skelly arrived at this time and went to the aid of Pidgeon.

The passengers on the car were mostly women and they shrieked and yelled with excitement and terror. The officers first turned their attention to the women and succeeded in getting them off the car. By this time the crowd became greatly augmented and the bystanders sent in a riot call to Chief of Police Anderson.

PATROL WAGON.

A patrol wagon full of officers was sent from every station in town and soon two hundred and fifty uniformed men appeared on the scene. Chief of Police Anderson took personal charge and the mob which had now reached 300, was beaten back by sheer force of a number of the blue coats and the riot was stopped about an hour after it had begun. In the course of the disturbance sixteen cars were damaged by the mob.

The police arrested Thomas Conar, John Ciesman, John Dally and Louis Chamberlain, all structural iron workers, and Earle Spangler, a union carman. These five were charged with disturbing the peace.

David Hector, a non-union man of the Fillmore street line is accused by bystanders of firing two shots into the crowd during the riot. He was arrested and charged with carrying a concealed weapon. E. G. Short, a non-union conductor, attached to the Geneva street car barn, was treated at the Harbor hospital for numerous bruises and a badly wounded hand.

Try to Assassinate Emperor of Austria

VIENNA, Sept. 5, 12:30 p. m.—It is reported here that an attempt was made to assassinate Emperor Francis Joseph this morning, but he escaped unharmed. The scene of the attempt is said to have been Klagenfurt, a town of Austria-Hungary about forty miles from Ljubljana and the capital of Carinthia.

The would-be assassin is described as an Austro-Italian laborer and the time of his attempt is said to have been 9:30 a. m.

OFFICIALS DENY.

VIENNA, Sept. 5, 1:30 p. m.—It is officially stated that there is no truth in the reports of the attempted assassination of Emperor Francis Joseph. They declare that an old peasant carrying a can attempted to approach the Emperor for the purpose of presenting a petition, which led to some confusion and the circulation of the rumor that an attempt had been made on the life of his majesty.

$3,000,000 FIRE RAGES AT ANTWERP

Rioters Start Big
Blaze at Lumber Yards.

ANTWERP, Sept. 5.—A fire which was started in a lumber yard last night by rioters, necessitating calling out of troops to assist the firemen in fighting the flames, is still burning this morning, threatening the destruction of the lumber and warehouse district of the city. Help has been summoned from Brussels and Ghent.

With the assistance of firemen from other cities the fire was under control at midnight, but only after desperate efforts were made by the firemen, militia, police and civilians. The loss is estimated at $3,000,000.

MANY STUDENTS FOR ST. MARY'S

College Registration Increases 100 Per Cent—Hal Chase Will Coach Phoenix.

St. Mary's College commences the new semester next Tuesday, Sept. 10, at 9 a. m. Registration of new students has been going on all this week, and already over 150 have been enrolled. They include residents not only of California, but many are from the States of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Nevada and New Mexico and some from Old Mexico. Other registrations are expected before school reopens. There is now an increase of over 100 per cent in the number of new scholars over last year. Former students arrive next week.

Brother Joseph expresses himself as exceedingly gratified with the results so far, and says he has nothing but encouraging prospects for the future. He received a letter from Hal Chase, the premier first baseman of the New York Americans, who says he will be back again to coach the Phoenix ball team to victory.

MITCHELL'S FATE TO BE IN JURY'S HANDS BY TONIGHT

Expert Is Called to Testify as to the Handwriting in Mrs. Asfor's Diary.

The diary kept by Mrs. Dr. A. L. Asfor is the final bone of contention in the David Mitchell case, for it is believed by the prosecution that the exhibit for the defense was written on at two different sittings.

Professor Carl Elenschimel, a handwriting expert of note, was on the stand yesterday afternoon telling the jury about the construction of the inscriptions in the note book. He could not tell whether or not Mrs. Asfor had written the account for November 17, 1905, all at the same time. He thought the part concerning the visit to Mitchell's office was written at another sitting from the memorandum of the earlier part of the day.

Charles W. Fore, an expert in handwriting, and Professor W. E. Gibson of the Polytechnic Business College were on the stand this morning for the defense to also explain from their knowledge of handwriting whether or not it appeared that the notes had been written at another time from what is claimed by Mrs. Asfor, who says she kept a record of it at the time of the alleged attack on Evelyn Walker.

F. G. A. Baumgartner was called for the prosecution this morning. It was attempted to have him tell of a visit he made to Mitchell's cell in the county jail, when the latter asked for $500 to hire detectives to get the Walker and Brown girls out of the way. Baumgartner's memory failed him, he said, and he could not remember the transactions very clearly. He said that Mitchell was the attorney for a case in which his father's property was involved and he (Baumgartner) called at the jail to obtain Mitchell's consent to a quit claim deed to the land in dispute. By this Baumgartner is said to have prompted favors to Mitchell and offered to go on his bond. The young man denied that if Mitchell would have consented to his getting the deed to Baumgartner Sr.'s property, he would have discovered evidence that might have freed the accused lawyer.

The attorneys have stipulated that the case is to go to the jury tonight.

STOLE DIAMONDS WORTH $5000, IS JURY'S VERDICT

James Reed was convicted of grand larceny by a jury in Judge Waite's court at 9 o'clock last night when they determined that he was the man who, on April 24 last, stole $5000 worth of diamonds from the jewelry store of P. C. Pule at the northeast corner of Thirteenth and Washington streets.

Reed offered no defense. When the several witnesses for the prosecution concluded their testimony by positively fastening the theft of the diamonds on Reed, Judge Robert Fernal said the defense had no testimony to offer. Judge Fernal, in his argument to the jury, tried to place the crime on one of Reed's companions.

THE big diamond robbery of last April was one of the most sensational crimes in Oakland for many years. About 10 o'clock on the morning of April 24, three men walked into the Pule jewelry store.

Two of them stepped up to a counter and were dealing for a purchase from Miss Alice Schwab. The third, who was identified as Reed, walked nervously about, and in the flash of a moment, threw open the sliding show case in the window on Thirteenth street and took out a tray containing a score of diamonds.

CHASED BY GIRL. Miss Mabel Wright, who also was clerking in the store, gave a scream and chased the robber out of the store. In the excitement that ensued, the trio escaped. Reed was chased for a few blocks, but evaded his pursuers by running through McVey's saloon on Telegraph avenue and over the back fence. He was arrested about two months later at Fremont.

It is expected that Reed will divulge the names of the men who are believed to have shared the stolen jewelry.

IF GLASS GOES TO PRISON OTHER CHARGES WILL DROP

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—If the sentence of Louis Glass, five years at San Quentin, is allowed to stand, he will not have to face trial on any of the other indictments pending against him.

The conclusion which was established by Judge Lawlor's action yesterday is substantiated by expressions of opinion from the office of the district attorney.

Mr. Langdon refuses to make a statement in view of the fact that questions are still pending in the Supreme court which may affect the prosecution. It is generally understood, however, that the prosecution believes the punishment that has been meted out is sufficient in Mr. Glass' case. Further prosecution would add to the expenses of the graft proceedings, which will be tremendous as they are. Each trial occupies a considerable space of time, and possibly years, to try each of the defendants on one charge.

THREATENED TO KILL POLICEMAN WITH RAZOR

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—"You remember what that policeman got yesterday. Well, I'll give you the same."

With these words, William Tettie, a soldier, drew a razor on Policeman A. H. DeGure on Fillmore street at 4:30 this morning, when the officer was in the act of placing him under arrest, but fortunately he was handcuffed in time to prevent him from doing any bodily injury.

Tettie, with Claude Halsehwan, another soldier, had been drinking heavily during the evening. They were in an ugly mood when they reached the corner of Fillmore and Broadway on their way to the Presidio. They yelled and shouted and threatened to kill everybody in sight and were arguing with a pedestrian when the officer came up.

He decided to place the men under arrest and had already seized Halsehwan by the arm, when Tettie pulled a razor from his pocket and crying, "You remember what that policeman got yesterday. Well, I'll give you the same," made a rush at the officer. DeGure was too quick for him. Dropping the arm of

HE CLAIMS ANOTHER PLEAS HIS WIFE

Claiming that C. O'Leary had won the affections of his wife and wrecked his home, William H. Lawson brought suit for divorce yesterday afternoon against Elizabeth Lawson.

The following new actions for divorce were begun: Susan A. O'Brien against John P. O'Brien, alleging desertion and willful neglect; Allen S. McGie against Ellen L. McGie, alleging desertion.

Mary E. Ross was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce against Sidney D. Ross on the ground of desertion.

BURGLARS IN EFFORT TO ROB MINISTER

Two burglars attempted to enter the First Baptist Church of Melrose yesterday morning at 2:30, by endeavoring to unlatch the windows at the side of the church, where the pastor was sleeping. Their efforts were fruitless.

As soon as the minister heard the rapping at his chamber window he hastily lit the gas and the would-be burglars made a successful escape.

SAYS FATHER DESERTS CHILD

Woman Claims Parent Writes in Vicious Mood Regarding Offspring.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—Alexander Jububinski was arrested this morning on a warrant known to by Mrs. S. Sales of 119 Fifteenth avenue, who charges him with omitting to provide for a minor child.

Jububinski left the city some two months ago leaving his little child in the custody of Mrs. Sales and paying two months' board in advance. Since then the woman alleges she has been unable to get any further money from the father, although she has repeatedly written to him.

HIS ALLEGED REPLY. In reply to her last letter the woman claims the father wrote her that she might as well throw the child in the street if she didn't want to take care of her any longer. It was this alleged letter that led Mrs. Sales to obtain a warrant for the man's arrest, and when he appeared in Judge Cabanis' court this morning the judge continued the case for five days and ordered that Jububinski be kept in custody until next Tuesday as part punishment for his offense.

RINGLINGS DUE HERE SUNDAY

Greatest Show on Earth With an Army of People and Beasts on Five Special Trains.

Ringling Brothers' big circus will go into camp at Forty-first street between Telegraph and Grove Sunday morning. The five special trains are scheduled to arrive early Sunday morning. The railway officials have arranged for convenient side-track room, so that the unloading of the several hundred horses, 40 elephants, wild animal pens, parade wagons and circus impedimenta of one kind and another may be quickly made.

The arrival of this big circus is always greeted by a great gathering of young and old, and the time and day favor a robust welcome to this kind. Then there will be the usual sight of three herds of elephants, scores of camels and other led beasts, hundreds of handsome horses, gilded cages, with jungle inmates, fanciful parade wagons and lots of other mystic wagons of one sort and another to interest the curious in the usual march from the railroad yards out to the show grounds.

WONDERFUL SYSTEM. The wonderful system that enables this big organization to establish a colony of 1200 people every day in cities from 60 to 100 miles apart has attracted the attention of the government, and has been studied by military officers with advantage to the army service. Three thousand and meals a day are served on the show grounds by Ringling Brothers' steward and his seventy-two assistants. It requires eighty-five cars to handle the equipment and human and dumb life of the show. When the circus tents are spread twelve acres of ground are occupied, and the big tent will seat comfortably 12,000 people.

PARADE ONLY MONDAY.

These shows are to be here Sunday and Monday, and performances are to be given in the afternoon and night of each day. The street parade, for which Ringling Bros. are famous, is promised more individual and impressive this year than ever. All the men, women and children connected with the show are said to take part, and the admiral of pedigree horse is promised much to please in its splendid display of Monday. The parade will leave the show grounds promptly at 9:30 o'clock and go over the usual downtown streets. There will be no street parade Sunday morning.

BIG HATS FOR WOMEN FOLK

Local Firm Attracts Multitude of Fair Sex by Window Display of Millinery.

Women folk are excited over the fall styles of hats—bigger and more elaborate, if possible, than ever before. They are having opportunity to study latest Parisian "creations" in the window of Abrahamsons at Thirteenth and Washington streets, where an opening of millinery began today and will extend over Friday and Saturday. The new stock has just been received from the importers.

The style this fall is large mushroom hats with drooping effects, made of various colors in felts and velvets and trimmed with large shower plumes and aligrettes. Hats that will be principally worn in colors of morocco, electric blue, purple, black, emerald, dallas shades and with oriental effects in novelties and ornaments.

The toque Marie Antoinette style, the Bell, chasseur, black taffeta with morocco facings and moire silk hats in all colors will be greatly used.

G. E. Moore, who has been buying all the fall stock in cloaks and furs for Abrahamsons, has just returned from New York.

WORKMAN IN DEATH SHADOW

Chunk of Cement Falls Eighteen Stories and Cuts Down His Arm.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—Harry Desker, of 857 Central avenue, had a miraculous escape from death at 10:30 this morning while at work on the ground floor of the Humboldt Bank building at Fourth and Market streets.

Desker, who is a stone mason, was kneeling down at his work when a piece of cement, which had dropped from the eighteenth story of the building, grazed his shoulder and inflicted a four inch wound in his arm.

Had the missile deviated from its course only three inches, Desker would undoubtedly have been instantly killed, as the cement weighed nearly a pound.

Miscreant Makes Four Attempts to Short Circuit and Finally Succeeds.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—Four determined attempts were made to short-circuit the trolley wires of the United Railroads at Sixteenth and Potrero avenue about 1 o'clock this morning. The last attempt was successful and a chain which was thrown over the wire at this point caused the entire system to be put out of business for an hour.

The short-circuiting caused a spectacular blaze, which could be witnessed at a great distance. The detective department of the United Railroads is working on the case and expect to have the perpetrators in custody some time today.

H. H. HOLLY AS EMBEZZLER
Former Reliance Club Man Eloped With Oakland Girl.

RENO, Sept. 5.—Sheriff Ferrell has received advice from Detroit that Henry Howard Holly, who some time ago eloped with Miss Cunningham of Oakland and was later accused of embezzlement by the Wells Fargo company, has been arrested in Detroit.

Holly's career in the west was replete with excitement. Coming from a prominent Southern family, he first went to Oakland. He became a member of the Reliance Club there, where his financial transactions were crooked, and finally he eloped with Miss Estelle Cunningham, a beautiful girl. He was arrested on the charge of stealing Mrs. Cunningham's diamonds. The charge was not pressed.

as the girl declared she took the gems herself.

Following this escapade he came to Reno and was employed by Wells Fargo. Becoming suspicious of the manner in which he gambled, his employers investigated his books, found him to be $700 short in his accounts, and swore out a warrant for his arrest. Before the warrant was served Holly escaped. When arrested in Detroit he was attending a social function in high society.

Irrigation Congress Listens to Address Though Hot Spell Thins Audience.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 5.—Forestry, agriculture and irrigation were the main features of the addresses listened to by delegates to the National Irrigation Congress today. The continued warm weather had an effect on the attendance and there were many more vacant chairs when Governor Chamberlain called the convention to order shortly before 10 o'clock than at any previous session.

A cablegram from Governor Fear of Hawaii announced the appointment of E. E. Paxton as delegate from that territory. There are now accredited delegates to the Congress from Europe, Asia, Africa, Oceania, North and South America, Central America, Hawaii and the Philippines.

The first address of the morning was that of E. A. Stevin, chief forester for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. He delivered an interesting talk on "Forestry and the Railroads."

HUSBAND AND DREAM OF MILLION VANDERBILT

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—A suit for divorce based on the grounds of misrepresentation before marriage was taken under advisement by Judge Seawell yesterday. Mabel Louise Allen, 20 years old and good looking, smilingly related to the court how she had been wooed by a man who professed to be the principal heir of an estate valued at $1,000,000; how she had dreamed of a home of plenty and a life of travel; how she had thus been induced to become Mrs. Allen, only to learn of her husband's deceit three weeks later, when he dropped out of sight and did not return.

Mrs. F. V. Falkner, Mrs. Allen's aunt, corroborated her niece's tale, adding that she had supposed her new nephew to be a perfect gentleman, but that he was not such a man, in fact, the biggest villain that ever lived.

"RICH UNCLE." Allen had represented that his uncle had died, leaving a fortune in Melbourne and had said that the money would be his just as soon as he fulfilled certain requirements of the uncle's will which would require his presence in Australia. A passage on an Australian bound steamer had been secured and the trip was to be a part of the honeymoon, but suddenly the groom dropped out of sight.

ARTIST EARLE BESET BY MOB

Five Hundred Citizens, Men and Women, Assail Him in Monroe.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Ferdinand Pinney Earle, the artist, was mobbed by 500 angry fellow citizens of Monroe, N. Y., and his carriage upset by them when he returned from New York after sending his discarded wife and son to Europe on the Ryndam.

His affinity, whose name Earle said is Julia Kuttner, for why he put away his wife, was in Monroe to see the artist fight for his life with the throng. She hurried away from Monroe this morning at 11 o'clock.

Earle escaped without serious injury, but he was badly bruised. He said that the police, who threw themselves between him and the enraged men and women who sought to reach him. Armed with a heavy buggy whip Earle himself stood off five men who dodged past the police and attacked him. He dealt them blows after blows, yelling defiance as he stood bareheaded in a pouring rainstorm. Thomas Ryan, Earle's coachman, stood with him and fought the assailants.

VIVIDLY DRAMATIC. Lightning and a torrential rainstorm helped to make a dramatic setting for the mobbing of the long-haired, bearded artist. Two buildings were struck by lightning while the excitement was at its height. The storm had been brewing for an hour before the train bearing Earle drew into the village. A little after 7 o'clock, it burst as the train slowed down, and just as Earle leaped from the steps a vivid flash of lightning revealed him to the waiting throng.

"There he is," they cried. "Get a rope, hang him!"

"Where is the woman?" others cried. "Let me pull out his whiskers," shrieked a woman's voice.

Immediately a dozen hands seized the carriage wheels and overturned the vehicle. Earle was thrown into the muddy street. He lost his hat, but he clung to the whip. The crowd pressed upon him, but he sprang to his feet and began to swing the whip. A big man in the lead, a railroad laborer, was struck in the face and knocked down. Twice more he swung his whip knocking two men down with each blow. Then the two policemen and the coachman reached his side and the mob was checked. Earle stood, bareheaded and panting, facing his assailants, while the lightning illuminated his towering figure.

WIFE IS BRAVE. The artist had bade his discarded wife and son goodbye on the deck of the Ryndam at the Holland-American pier at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. They smiled and laughed, turning off questions with joking remarks. Mrs. Earle grew serious at the last.

"We are contented with the arrangements," she said in her parting statement. "In reconciliation there is both pain and happiness. I am now experiencing the pain, but I hope in the future to experience the happiness. I am making this sacrifice willingly and leave my husband to the woman he has chosen to succeed me with only charitable feelings. My boy and I are going to Paris to make our home. I shall teach my son to forget."

3000 ATTEND UNION FUNERAL

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—The funeral of John S. Peterson, the houseman, who was killed in the riot at Sansome and Market streets on Monday, was held from his residence, 154 Fillmore street, at 9 o'clock this morning.

Over 3000 Union men and Native Sons followed the remains of the dead man to his last resting place. A large detail of police was on hand in anticipation of further trouble with the non-union men on the Fillmore street cars.

At first but two policemen were detailed from the Mission station, but as time went on and the streets became blocked with people, the officers on duty became nervous and telephoned to Captain Xomora for reinforcements. A detachment of thirty men from the Mission and O'Farrell street stations were immediately sent and no trouble of any kind occurred.

TANSEY SITS UNCONCERNED

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—Stolid, uncommunicative, almost morbid in his demeanor, John J. Tansey sits in his steel cell at the city prison apparently unconcerned in regard to the strong case that is being built up against him by the police.

When seen this morning he was a little more nervous than usual. He had not read the paper and did not know of the confession of George Bell, his companion of the evening of the murder. He was handed a newspaper, but after reading Bell's statement he refused to say anything until he had seen his lawyer.

Scarcely any one has been seen to see the alleged murderer since his incarceration and an occasional short visit from E. E. Kirk, his lawyer, has been the only event to break the monotony of his confinement. He receives little sympathy from the officers and attaches at the prison, who feel ten times more bitter against him than they would had he killed some one other than a police officer.

GRAIN MEN GO TO THE WALL

Failure of Watson & Co. Reported on 'Change Today Was Not Unexpected.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The failure of Watson & Company, bond commission brokers, was announced on the New York Stock Exchange today. It is understood that the firm has been very active in trading in Northwestern Railroad stocks lately.

The firm is composed of Lewis T. Watson, Henry P. Watson, H. V. Jones and C. E. Anderson. It has branch offices in Duluth, Hot Springs, Va., Minneapolis and Winnipeg. Watson & Company have been large operators in grain. H. V. Jones, one of the members of the firm, a crop expert, spent much of his time getting through the wheat belt following the progress of the crop and making estimates of it. The firm has been identified particularly with Great Northern and Northern Pacific stocks and is reported to have suffered severely in a decline of those stocks last December.

The failure had been anticipated on the Stock Exchange and the actual announcement did not induce any considerable selling.

WILL MARK ALL STREETS

Signs Soon to be Completed for Corners Over the Entire City.

Secretary Fawcett, of the Board of Works, is completing a list of street signs for the city corners, and in the course of about two months he expects to have the names of intersecting streets posted on every street corner in Oakland.

About 1500 additional signs are needed at present, and as soon as the list is complete it will be forwarded to the factory and new signs will be produced in short order. It is probable that the supply will be complete in about two months.

TO REGULATE SIGNS.

Several city councilmen are working with the officials of the Board of Works in preparing an ordinance regulating the size and use of all commercial signs on the city streets. The ordinance will fix a limit on the amount of projection over the sidewalks which commercial signs may be allowed, as well as regulating and defining the size and use of electrical and other street signs.

The ordinance will probably be submitted to the City Attorney for approval this week before it is presented to the City Council.

MEXICAN WAR VETERAN DEAD

ALAMEDA, Sept. 5.—James N. Kame, a veteran of the Mexican War, died this morning, aged 80 years. He was born in the old soldier never married and his only surviving relatives are two nieces, Mrs. Eliza Buckley and Miss Molly Kame.

Kame was one of the sturdy pioneers of the State and came here in 1849. He was never sick a day from the time he came to the State until two days ago. He passed away this morning at 10 o'clock at his home, 722 Lincoln avenue, where he had lived for the past year. He came to this city when his home was destroyed in San Francisco in the fire of last year.

When he came to California the veteran engaged in mining and accumulated considerable money.

The funeral is to take place Saturday.

SOON TO BEGIN WORK ON NEW WHARF CARPENTER DEED ARRIVES FROM THE EAST WHICH INSURES ALL MONEY NOW NEEDED

BERKELEY, Sept. 5.—The last hitch in the preparations for Berkeley's municipal wharf has been removed by the arrival of the Carpenter deed from New York. This deed concerns the right of way of the wharf, and places it in the hands of W. D. Heywood, one of the chief promoters of the new wharf planned for Berkeley.

By reason of the transfer of the deed to Heywood, the remainder of the money necessary to build the structure has been secured, and the work will begin at once. At a bond election held recently $100,000 was voted to build the pier.

GALVESTON ASKS OAKLAND

Wants to Know All About the Beautiful Street Lights in This City.

The following letter was received by the city clerk today:

"Galveston, Texas, Aug. 31.—City Secretary, Oakland, Cal.—Dear Sir: Being engaged in an effort to have Galveston possess all the advantages which modern cities have, we are at present working to secure the most efficient, striking, and attractive system for the lighting of Galveston at night. A member of our board of directors, while on a visit to your city recently, was charmed with the appearance of the city, and especially the manner in which it was lighted.

WHOLE PLAN WANTED.

"I trust you will be willing to give me such information as will aid us in our efforts, or if in part, by letter to your department, you will refer this letter to the proper office. Please give me a statement of the plan adopted by your city, character of your lights, distance between lights, whether paid for, in whole or in part, by taxation, subscriptions from parties whose business adjoins, cost of installing, and such other information as to you may seem to be of service to us in this undertaking.

"I take that you and your people, like mine and myself, take a pride in anything looking to the progress and improvement of our city and every city in this our common country, hence I know that what you can do in our behalf will be done.

"Yours sincerely,

J. E. KAUFFMAN,

"Secretary Galveston Business League."

GROWN MAN PUMMELS BOY

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—Frank Sullivan and Frank Egan were arrested in front of the Turk and Fillmore streets car barn at 2 o'clock this afternoon as the result of a small riot.

The affair was caused by the calling of a name at one of the men on the part of a small boy who had just issued from the office of the United Railroads. The men resented the boy's insult and a crowd soon gathered. Sullivan attacked the boy, pummeling him severely on the head.

At this juncture Policeman O'Connell came to the rescue and took the two men, Egan and Sullivan, into custody.

PETITIONS FOR LETTERS IN VALENTINE ESTATE

John J. Valentine, Jr., this afternoon filed a petition in the Superior Court for letters of administration for the estate of his late brother, William George Valentine, who was killed in a street car accident on May 21 last.

The petition states that he left about $20,000 to him from the Union Trust Company of San Francisco. Valentine also states that his brother was never married and leaves only his brothers and sisters.

WOMAN THREATENS.

A short time after Valentine's tragic death a young woman, who claimed to be his widow, threatened to petition the Superior Court for letters of administration to his estate, which she believed to be a large one. She claimed to have married the young man in Seattle.

A short time before his death Valentine attempted to commit suicide in San Francisco over a love affair. This alleged wife has never come in court to claim her relationship. Valentine is a son of the late J. C. Valentine who was late president of the Wells-Fargo & Business Company.

WHEAT CROPS NORTH ARE REPORTED GOOD

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 5.—Complete reports received by the traffic department of the Great Northern show that if fair weather holds over the wheat crop in the Pacific Northwest will be a bumper one. The heavy rains of the past week will not seriously damage the wheat crops of the Big Bend and upper Columbia river districts. The wheat yield along the Great Northern is estimated to be about 40 bushels per acre, a total yield in the State that may run as high as 40-50 bushels. The Great Northern territory is a late or fall wheat, the principal danger feared by farmers and buyers is the bleaching of the grain. Little or no damage of rust or mildew or smut is said to be expressed in the Great Northern report. Weather forecasts indicate that conditions will be favorable for harvesting along the line of the Hill road.

SUTTON SUES FOR DIVORCE

Architect Charges 'Pretty' Wife With Making Merry With Auto Agent.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—Albert Sutton, architect, artist and clubman, in a complaint filed this morning, charges his pretty wife, Mrs. Ethel M. Sutton, with infidelity. The bare facts set forth in the formal accusation by his attorneys, Peter F. Dunne and C. W. Durbrow, are only an echo of the merry moments spent by the pleasure-loving spouse in the company of Walter E. White, an automobile agent, whose frolics on the Tenderloin have been frequent and startling.

Like his namesake, Stanford White, he believed in making merry and did not care whether he wrecked as many homes as he did automobiles in the midnight revels. Mrs. Sutton has been separated from her husband for two months and her whereabouts are unknown, but she will be served with a summons before the proof of the husband's sensational charges are brought before a court.

WAS SAN LORENZO GIRL.

Sutton has lived for a number of years at Vallejo and Divisadero streets. He married at San Lorenzo on August 29, 1894, and has two children, Alberta, aged 11 years, and Anna Fidelia, aged 18 years. His domestic life was peaceful until the automobile man won the affections of his wife.

His suspicions rapidly ripened into a confirmation of facts which he could not overlook, and when he charged his wife with forgetting her vows there was a row which led to a separation.

Neither Sutton nor his attorneys will disclose the evidence upon which the complaint is based, but it is said to be as startling as that which has made the Thaw trial a case of international interest.

Many dates are specified in the complaint, but no attempt is made to date the acts which are alleged. That evidence will be withheld until the case comes on for trial, if Mrs. Sutton should decide to contest it.

An effort to locate White has been unsuccessful. It is not known whether he has left town with Mrs. Sutton or whether he is waiting to weather the storm when it breaks.

ACCUSES AGENT OF EMBEZZLING

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—Thomas G. Kennedy, city agent for the Universal Adding Machine Company, was arrested today at the instance of the Grand Jury on a charge of embezzling $240 of the funds of the company.

Cease, who is the Pacific coast manager of the company, came to investigate the affairs of Kennedy and found that the latter had received checks from the Pacific Coast Electric Light and Power Company, the treasurer of Sonoma county, and the treasurer of Fresno county, and had induced them, putting the money in his own use.

Kennedy will have an opportunity of telling his side of the story when the case comes up in the police court tomorrow.

IS CUT WITH FLYING GLASS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—John Williams of 316 Cedar avenue, was brought to the Central Emergency Hospital at 2 o'clock from the scene of the riot at Fourteenth and Valencia streets. He was severely cut about the head and face from flying glass and treated by Dr. Hill.

All the police who were sent to the scene with the exception of a small detail returned to the Central station, have been kept as a reserve force in the Mission district and the company is now endeavoring to run its cars on schedule time.

PETALUMA COUPLE TO WED.

PETALUMA, Sept. 5.—The engagement of Mrs. Isabelle Fritsch and Eugene Cantel was made known here Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Fritsch is the widow of the late Walter Fritsch and the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Mecham, pioneers of this city. Mecham is one of the prominent capitalists of this county. Cantel is the son of Mrs. Louis Cantel.

THE FACT

that the breweries own the saloons in most cities of this country, speaks more eloquently for the business acumen of the brewers than for the retailers. The average saloon-keeper is a temperate man, won't touch alcoholics, even beer, but the brewer sells his beer to a number of saloons, on long time, encourages the credit system and co-operates with other brewers to control the retail trade. A saloon-keeper cannot can his soul his own, as a rule, but he knows enough to keep perfectly sober. In this respect, at least, the grocer shop man is a very honest of some of the rest of us. Personally, I believe we'd all be equally content if we were confined to resorts like Lehnhardt's for quenching our thirsts and calming our nerves. How is it with you, brother?

WARSHIPS TO TOUR GLOBE

Vessels Not to Remain Permanently on Pacific Coast is Report.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Some interesting information bearing on the dispatch of Admiral Evans' battleship fleet to the Pacific is published in the Times today, and is accredited to a high authority. The administration, it is stated, does not mean to confine the fleet's movement to the Pacific Coast. The President's plan is to send the warships to Hawaii and then to the Philippines after their visit to California ports. When orders are issued for their return the route designated will be via the Suez Canal. Thus the fleet will circumnavigate the globe. It is further learned that in the meantime the Atlantic Coast will not be left unprotected, but that at the instance of President Roosevelt the Navy Department has already begun to plan the mobilization of another fleet to replace that under Admiral Evans.

FLAGSHIP NEW HAMPSHIRE.

The flagship of the new fleet will be the New Hampshire, a 16,000-ton battleship, which is to be ready for commission early in January. As soon as possible she is to be joined by the Mississippi and the Idaho, the first class battleships now under construction by the Grampsons and nearing completion.

These three powerful vessels will serve as escorts to the three veterans of the Spanish war, the battleships Iowa, Indiana and Massachusetts, which are now being modernized.

BOND ELECTION SEPTEMBER 21

Alamedans Will be Then Called on to Vote Funds for Big Improvements.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 5.—The council last night decided on the 21st of this month for the bond election.

The polls on the day of the election will be open from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. There will be a voting place in each precinct and there will be four election officers for each booth. The pay of the officers shall be $3.

The first reading of the applications of the Southern Pacific company for franchises to operate an electric road through this city was read and referred to the committee of the whole.

HALL JANITOR.

J. E. Hadley was last night appointed janitor of the city hall. He is the night sergeant in charge of the station and was given an increase of $10 a month to see that all necessary work should be properly done.

The communication to have the council allow $25,000 for the purchase of a new unit for the plant, was not acted on at the meeting.

The question of purchasing a lot near the Luning school for the enlarging of the school yard was referred to City Attorney Simpson.

The application of residents on Taylor avenue near Eighth street to have the avenue improved was referred to the street superintendent and city engineer.

The bids for the purchase of a street roller were opened but referred to the street committee.

ONLY TWO OBIDS.

The Hutchinson Company and Blake & Bliger were the only firms who dealt to have the work of improving Buena Vista avenue from Grand to Webster street. No action was taken until the bids could be examined.

City Attorney Simpson gave his opinion that the persons who contracted with the city to furnish certain materials, or do certain work, need not immediately apply to the Auditor to have the contracts assigned, but could wait until their pleasure.

Mayor Taylor agreed with the City Attorney and it is planned to contract for any work needed and to pay the bills when the taxes become due.

IS ROBBED OF HIS DIAMONDS

Thief Finds Gems Hidden Under Bunk in Dining Car.

The police have been notified that G. F. Klink, an employe on a dining car stationed in the West Oakland railroad yards, was robbed yesterday of a diamond ring, valued at about $300, while he was absent from the car. It is believed that the thief was some one who is familiar with the route the places where Klink hid his jewelry under his bunk. Klink told B. H. Gardner, of Pulse and Company, about his loss and the latter reported the affair to the Southern Pacific detectives, who in turn requested the local sleuths to assist them in ferreting out the perpetrator of the crime.

Gloating Over Misery and Shame.

The composure shown by Louis Glass during the trying ordeal of being sentenced to State prison appears to have affronted the moral sense of certain newspaper editors, who refer to it as "stoicism." Had the unfortunate man broken down and wept or further humiliated himself by ineffectual and unmanly pleading the unco good would have been placated if not satisfied. Louis Glass may be guilty of the crime of which he has been convicted—we do not know and have no right to dispute the verdict of a jury—but guilty or innocent he is infinitely more worthy of respect than the venal, treacherous dogs who violated their oaths of office, betrayed a public trust and hunted loot with the keen scent of a buzzard for carrion. These rogues whose crimes are legion and whose manifold guilt is brazenly admitted walk the streets unpunished, enjoying their foul gains and still fouler rewards under the protection of the very authority that is sworn to prosecute criminals and vindicate innocence. At least, Louis Glass has borne himself in his business and social relations in such a manner as to win the respect and friendship of all with whom he came in contact. If he committed the crime of bribery he deserves disgrace and punishment, but how any man can gloat over the degradation and dishonor of a man of his years and standing passes comprehension. Why there should be pique and disappointment because he took his shame with becoming fortitude, receiving his sentence with a calm assertion of innocence is a still deeper mystery. But man's inhumanity to man has stained all the ages with cruelty and tears and blood. It is nothing new for jackals and polecats to be honored and praised for assisting to pull down the stag. So it is not strange that the conviction of Louis Glass should be regarded as ample atonement for the crimes of Bostox, Sanderson, Loneragan and their filthy associates.

But even if that view be taken why should any one rejoice over the misery and shame of a man who stood high among his fellows, who was generous and true in his friendships, and whose business integrity was never questioned? Assuming that his conviction was righteous, it was a melancholy duty to be performed in a decorous and regretful spirit. And if there is no throb of generous sympathy at the sight of an honored name dragged in the mire and an old age sent to rot in prison, there is at least enough doubt in the testimony to warn thoughtful citizens against being too sure that this man is not a victim instead of a criminal. Justice sometimes makes mistakes and witnesses—especially interested ones—not infrequently commit perjury. Only a few months ago a man sent to prison for a crime of which he was not guilty was discharged from San Quentin only to be consigned to a madhouse, a hopeless mental wreck. In his case an innocent mistake was made; in the case of Louis Glass ample reason can be inferred why some men should clear their skirts of infamy by assisting to fasten crime upon another. While the mandates of judicial tribunals command respect and obedience, it does not follow that there is either decency, virtue or manliness in yelping with unseemly gratification at the heels of sorrow and shame. Justice is not so inexorable and stern, or so infallible, that it cannot afford room for pity if not mercy. Some measure of forbearance is due a man who can sustain a crushing misfortune with becoming fortitude and composure.

Roosevelt Abandons Joint Statehood.

During his recent visit to the Pacific Coast, Secretary of the Interior Garfield took occasion to sound the people of Arizona and New Mexico on the question of joint Statehood. His report to the President of the condition of affairs and public sentiment there has induced the latter to declare his abandonment of the scheme in a letter sent to Governor Kibbey of Arizona. However, the President is silent on the subject of separate Statehood, to which each of the two Territories really aspire.

Joint Statehood of Arizona and New Mexico never had a chance of success after the bill which Senator Beveridge engineered through Congress was amended so as to require a majority vote in favor of a consolidated State to be cast in each Territory in order to make the act effective. It was a foregone conclusion then that Arizona would reject the proposition and thus block the joint Statehood. If the bill had gone through as Beveridge planned it should, Arizona's anti-joint Statehood vote would not have counted for anything, as it would have been negated in the joint count by New Mexico's pro-Statehood majority. While the people of the latter Territory have desired separate Statehood as sincerely as those of Arizona, they have not been averse, however, to the absorption of the latter as a compromise. But Arizona's object to being swallowed in any such political juggle. The two Territories possess few things in common. Their populations represent different races. Their national resources are different; and so are their interests and aspirations. Moreover, joint Statehood would have transferred the seat of government into New Mexico and given the control of the State government into the hands of its people. Roosevelt favored the joint Statehood bill as a half way measure toward the final accomplishment of separate Statehood at some future time, on the principle that half a loaf is better than none. Although silent on the subject of separate Statehood in his letter to Governor Kibbey, it is fair to presume that any measure providing for it would receive his support, now that he is convinced that joint Statehood is hopeless. However, the question is not likely to be revived at the coming session of Congress, for a Presidential election is too near at hand and other matters of more general interest and importance to the country at large will demand consideration and prevent the intrusion of so irritating and contentious a subject at present. The question of the translation of these two Territories into separate States will be surely sidetracked for a time, although each one has been fairly entitled to the privilege for at least a decade.

Value of Tourist Travel.

An Eastern exchange says: "Reports from Europe are that American travel this season has been not only larger but much more liberal in the expenditure of money. London alone, it is calculated, has gathered in $7,500,000 from this source during the summer. The common estimate of our yearly traveling account with Europe is an expense of $100,000,000. It is quite within the probabilities that the outgo this year may reach $150,000,000." This illustrates the value of tourist travel, to attract which Los Angeles made use of every influence at its command and built itself up to its present position among the cities of the State. Tourist travel is, as a matter of fact, the greatest resource which Los Angeles possesses. Stop it, and it would suffer a season of depression the like of which it never before experienced.

THE RIGHT SONG.

Tourist travel is the mainstay of Paris and Switzerland. The former has adopted every device for self-adornment and self-attractiveness in order to draw visitors from abroad. The fame of the city has spread not only all over the civilized world, but to the remotest centers of semi-civilized and barbarous life, and its annual revenues from these sources are enormous. Much of the $150,000,000 which American tourists to Europe are credited with spending there is dropped in Paris and Switzerland, for the little republic is harvesting a large share of the tourist traffic, which with its home industries, make it one of the richest sections on the continent. Of course, so long as the Alps stand on their foundations Switzerland will draw a large revenue from affluent foreigners who love to gaze upon beautiful and impressive landscapes.

Why $150,000,000 of American money should cross the Atlantic annually to be spent on sightseeing is one of the marvels of the times, when the fad can be indulged on a much larger scale with immensely bigger results by touring through the wonderlands of the Far West, many of which are centered in the northern and central parts of California. There are natural attractions enough in these parts of the State alone to surfeit those possessed of the most serious case of sightseeing mania; and if the artificial inducements to Eastern tourists which Europe holds out to them were provided here a large share of the $150,000,000 spent annually on that continent could be earned by this State and remain, therefore, in the country.

Oakland ought to have as big a share of the revenue derived from tourist travel as Los Angeles is getting yearly. We have neglected our opportunities in this respect in the past. There are attractions in and around Oakland and within easy reach of it which Los Angeles does not possess, and which it can never acquire, for no artificial process is capable of producing them. If they had been exploited, however, as Los Angeles has done with those natural and artificial attractions it possesses Oakland would, long ago, have attained equal, if not superior results. We are beginning to wake up to a realization of this fact and are adapting ourselves to it, as we ought to have done many years before. An era of self-adornment and hotel building has set in which is going to accomplish much; and, with these essential improvements advanced, and an intelligent advertising of its superb local attractions and its incomparable climate, Oakland will soon recover the place in the eyes of the world's tourists which it has hitherto lost through sheer neglect.

He must take his part, and he is right about it."—Springfield Republican.

AN OPPORTUNITY For a Man Who Can Sell

Not all good salesmen have good positions. Not all the men who have it in them to sell have yet found the right opportunity to develop this ability, or the position where their ability will be rewarded when shown. If either of the above applies to you, if you are all right as to character, capable as a salesman, and persistent as a worker, this advertisement is pointed right your way. The business referred to is the sale of life insurance; something that is certain to be more in demand every year. The Company referred to is the strongest in the world—best for policy holder, best for agent. A contract will be offered that will result in building up an increasing income each year. No previous experience is necessary; a course of professional instruction will be given free, but the position calls for work—it will never pay a quitter. If you are interested, drop a line at once to the undersigned, give your references, and tell him something about yourself. Don't simply send your address—that alone will not fill the bill. All letters treated in strict confidence.

Every mother feels the great dread of the pain and danger attendant upon the most critical period of her life. Becoming a mother should be a source of joy to all, but the suffering and danger incident to the ordeal makes its anticipation one of misery. Mother's Friend is the only remedy which relieves women of the great pain and danger of maternity; this hour which is dreaded as woman's severest trial is not only made painless, but all the danger is avoided by its use. Those who use this remedy are no longer despondent or gloomy; nervousness, nausea and other distressing conditions are overcome, the system is made ready for the coming event, and the serious accidents so common to the critical hour are obviated by the use of Mother's Friend. "It is worth its weight in gold," says many who have used it. $1.00 per bottle at drug stores. New Necessities New Conditions New Ideals

LONDON, Sept. 5.—It is a far cry from the days when the Amelia Sedleys were being educated in the select academies presided over by the dignified and moralizing Miss Pinkerton. It is amusing to compare the "report" of the fair Amelia as embodied in the parting letter to the young larealized her friends' fondest wishes. In geography there is still much to be desired, and a careful and undeviating use of the blackboard for four hours daily during the next three years is regarded as necessary for the attainment of that dignified deportment and carriage so requisite for every young lady of fashion. In the principles of religion and morality, Miss Sedley will be found worthy etc.

MODERN GIRL.

Our modern girl's report is brief and to the point. A long list of subjects at which the Miss Pinkertons would look aghast—with marks obtained in each during the term and at the examination, and a laconic "good," "satisfactory," "poor," with a passing reference, perhaps, to "conduct." A comparison between the reports is by no means uninteresting, and a study of the earlier document reveals the historical fact that the Miss Pinkerton type of teacher, with her Amelia type of pupil, is as extinct as the dodo. And we need not altogether mourn her passing; she probably did excellent work in her day, but her work had to go down before new necessities, new conditions, new ideals.

The elastic belt, imitating pompadour ribbon, is a novelty. The pink ones with flowers in dull pastel tints are particularly lovely, especially when worn with a gold buckle.

Concerning Women In Science, Art, Literature, Charity and Business.

Adelaide R. Hasse is a librarian expert. She became known to fame as much as sixteen years ago when in Los Angeles at attendant in the public library. Two years later she sent for verification to the department of agriculture at Washington a check list of its publications. The officials of the department wrote her that she had indexed publications of which it had no record and did not know it had published, and issued her a special bulletin with the statement that the necessity for it had long been recognized. This led to her being made the document librarian at Washington. The superintendent there said that the library of the documents of the United States government, as long as it shall endure will remain a monument to the intelligence, real and industry of Adelaide R. Hasse. The director of the public library of New York induced her to join his staff, where she is making the greatest collection of its kind in the world. For this most useful woman addresses, messages, monographs, tables of statistics, and miscellaneous oddities from which most persons turn with aversion have an attraction that prompts her searches into attics and cellars, into literary junk shops, and even to foreign lands.

Plucky Woman Puts Bear on Run FIGHTS BRUIN WITH BIG ROMAN CANDLES

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 5.—The mighty hunters, including President Roosevelt, of bears and other big game had better go lightly on their stories for the rest of the season, since the latest instance of the year has become public, though it was not through the chief participant in the incident that it was made public.

This time there was a woman in the case. She is Mrs. Mary Moore, who has charge of the linen room at the Anders hotel during the winter. She spends her summers on a claim that she has taken up on Cheyenne mountain, above Wade City, where she has a cabin and lives alone during the summer.

She left the hotel, as usual, early in the summer, taking with her, among other things, a whole ham and a bunch of big Roman candles that had been left at the hotel and had been relegated to the linen room with other odds and ends. These were presented to her by Manager Dunning when she left this summer.

SEES A BEAR.
Last night Mrs. Moore was awakened by a noise. She arose hastily and in the bright moonlight saw a big bear snuffing about the barricade of chairs and boxes, which she had placed in the open doorway for cooling purposes during the night. The bear had smelled the ham and was after it.

Mrs. Moore was almost paralyzed with fright. She had no firearms of any kind nor any chance of securing outside help.
The bear was rapidly making headway in breaking down the barricade in the doorway. Something had to be done, and that quickly.

Remembering, in her excitement, that bears are alarmed at the smell of powder, Mrs. Moore lit one of the Roman candles. After lighting it she whizzed it in a narrow circle in front of the bear, some of the balls of fire striking him in the eyes and on the nose.
The animal recoiled back on its haunches in sheer wonderment. Upon seeing this Mrs. Moore lit a pair of the candles, firing the balls at the shaggy intruder. The second volley was too much for Mr. Bear and he turned and without further investigation ran around the mountain side.
Mrs. Moore says that in spite of her weird experience she will continue making her summer home in the mountain.

SHE POSES NUDE IN LILY POND

WICHITA, Kan., Sept. 5.—After posing apparently nude in a lily pond in North Riverside park, Miss Mona Payton, nineteen years old, was sent home and the photographer, J. J. Todd, arrested. Todd said he wanted a picture to enter in a photograph contest and intended to take the girl's head and shoulders and com-

Women who discovered the photographer at work declare they found the girl's clothing on a park bench. By the time they reported the matter to the police a crowd of curious persons had assembled and the photographer was forced to leave his camera and drive the intruders away.

Another Bride Caught By Cupid on Taft Trip

Gait Is Telltale

People betray their characters very much by the way they walk.
Firm, regular steps show a steady, determined character; jerky, uneven steps denote nervousness and irritability. The energetic person walks quickly and stops suddenly. The dreamer saunters along abstractedly, with slow steps, but most people walk slowly when they happen to be in deep thought, so this is far from an infallible test.
The obstinate man plods along and will not deviate an inch from his path to please anybody. At the same time, the person who is ready to get out of everyone's way is not necessarily weak-willed. He may suffer from an excess of politeness.
The long, elastic step usually marks the generous, broad-minded person, while, per contra, the small, petty step shows one of mean, narrow character. This applies far more to men than to women.

Good Form In False Hair

Apocryphal vanity, every woman this summer ought to have some of those fascinating additions to her coiffure. It is almost impossible to do without them. Of course, it's being overdone by the wrong people tremendously, but with a certain amount of restraint one may accept this new fashion and be thankful that the shibboleth "Good Form" sanctions it. Nothing nicer in this way has been invented than the new comb puffs that obviate all difficulties of adjustment and that give a graceful finish to a coiffure. Instead of the single puffs that have to be so carefully fastened on, this is a comb of which are four or so puffs, and after the comb is once pushed in place one may forget the little puffs in a complete consciousness that they are truly safe. The puffs are carefully matched, and as they are put on exactly as one would arrange them if by good fortune one could arrange one's own hair, the deception is complete—unless, of course, some one actually asks if they are home grown—perish the thought!

STAGE-STRUCK WIFE GIVES UP SON, THEN IS JAILED

Husband Secures Unusual Writ in Effort to Prevent His Spouse From Joining Opera Company.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 5.—To keep his wife, Carrie, off the stage, Henry J. Hawley has had her locked up in jail. Mrs. Hawley was about to leave the city on a tour with an opera company, and gave her little son to a friend to take care of.

Her husband learned of her intention, however, and secured a writ of ne-exeat, the first ever issued against a woman in this county.

The writ ordered her imprisonment pending the giving of bail, which she was unable to obtain. She remained in jail all of the night, but will be allowed, her husband consenting, to sign her own bail bond in the morning. The child is to be kept in the orphan asylum to which he was sent by order of the court.

... HOME OR A CAREER ...

$20---FOR THE BEST ANSWER---$20

Who Do You Think Is Right?

Here is a chance for the women readers of the woman's page of THE TRIBUNE.

Charles M. Schwab, the millionaire steel man, says that the sphere of a woman begins at home.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, society leader and brilliant leader of fashion, says the sphere of a woman is where she chooses to make it.

Mr. Schwab says that marriage is always the goal of woman, and Mrs. Fish says marriage is a minor consideration to a career.

Believes Both Career And Home Are Possible

Certainly home is woman's sphere, as it is man's. Two consecrated lives it takes to make a home. It takes also two careers for the ideal home of today. If woman, through early training and ability, can earn, without neglecting home, many times the expense of a helper, is she career a mistake? Valuable asset to the household? Yes, give both equal opportunity in every direction, but al-

Rearing Family Should Be Pride of All Women

I think Schwab is right about a woman's sphere beginning at home. A woman's pride should be in marrying a good husband, rearing a family, making her home happy, and bringing her family up to be good men and women, that she can be proud of them, and not be ashamed of them.
To rear such a family and possess such a lovely home should be her sphere.

STOOD SUSIE ON HER HEAD AND POUNDED THE PIN OUT

Then She Reached Down Her Own Throat and Got the Sticker "Her Own Self."

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 5.—If Susie Kirkpatrick knows her own mind she will never again swallow a pin. Susie has done that twice, and the second time she was the recipient of such pronounced attention that she does not covet another experience.

Susie is the child of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Kirkpatrick of St. Louis. She is three and a half years old and is now with her mother at Kilcare Cottage at Plazo Chautauque. When she ran to her mother yesterday and remarked "pin," Mrs. Kirkpatrick knew what had happened. She looked as far down Susie's throat as she could, but could see no pin. She seized Susie by the heels and held her wrong end up and shook her.

A neighbor suggested rolling and pounding and Susie was rolled and pounded and was pounded most unmercifully. Susie coughed a little and put her finger in her mouth and pulled out a pin. Nobody knows how far down inside of Susie's throat it had been, but everybody was powerful glad to see it.

BROKEN ENGAGEMENT OF MARRIED MAN MUST BE HEALED WITH SHINING COIN

An English Jurist So Decides the First Case on Record

In reporting an original case in law the London Truth says:
Married men do not, as a rule, become engaged to other ladies while their wives are still living. Possibly they value too highly such revolutionary interest in single blessedness as they may possess, to give a charge on it, so to speak, without consideration, to any female of a speculative turn who is willing to take up the investment subject to the interest of the tenant for life. This no doubt explains why the courts have never until the last week had to decide the validity of a promise of marriage given by a man who already has a one wife living. Lord Coleridge, as a commissioner of assize, had to decide this point, without any precedent to guide him, in the case of Mr. Carnley and Miss Wilson.

HE REPENTED.

Carnley, though an exception to the general rule of married men, is really an exception that proves the rule, for though he promised to marry Miss Wilson when he should be free to do so, he repented of the promise when he found himself free. Evidently the taste of freedom was too much for him. He is a solicitor, and he comforted himself with the notion that his promise to Miss Wilson was void in law as contrary to public policy. Possibly also as a professional man, he was moved by a laudable ambition to provide support for the high court of justice and to immortalize himself as a party in a leading case, which will be cited at the bar by generations yet unborn. Anyhow, he defended the action; a jury awarded the lady $500 damages, and Lord Coleridge has decided that he must pay up.

MERE CONJECTURE.

The argument that a married man's promise to marry again, when the law permits him to do so, is contrary to public policy was rooted by counsel on the opinion that an engagement of this nature would be an inducement to a man to murder his wife or procure a divorce.

BALLADE OF RECEPTION.

Dear me, how do you do?
I've longed to see you so.
Why, what a pretty blue!
It's new. I'm certain—No?
My dresses always show;
But you—you've such a way—
A bit of lace—a bow—
(Yes, such a pleasant day!)

That Smith woman! Well, who Invited her here? Oh,
Indeed! You like her too?
But she's so common, though;
They really quite de trop,
And then the neighbors say—
Of course these stories grow—
(Yes, such a pleasant day!)

Dear Mrs. Smith, it's you!
Here I've loomed high and low
To find someone I knew
A song! How beautifully slow!
And May—voice like a crow,
I loved that last one, May,
It seemed so apropos—
(Yes, such a pleasant day!)

ENVOY.
No, really, I must go;
I'd simply love to stay.
But—"Best of friends"—you know—
(Yes, such a pleasant day!)

—Puck.

CHARLES S. BECKER OF THE BERKELEY POLICE DEPARTMENT.

Hundreds Are Scouring the Country for Tribune Votes for Popular Candidates.

THE TRIBUNE Sunday will announce the names and number of votes cast for the candidates in the Great $10,000 Prize Contest.

To enter the race early means much to the vote gatherer.

Hundreds are already canvassing the country and city for votes and Sunday's prize lists will no doubt be news to everybody.

The names should be entered as soon as possible so the public can learn who are in the race and how they stand.

Many stray votes can be gathered by just being a popular candidate and having your name on the list at the beginning of the race.

Fold up subscriptions are those that speak it's a very easy matter to get the 1000 extra vote coupon which is offered for a year's paid-in-advance subscription.

A candidate knowing of anyone who takes THE TRIBUNE by the month, can easily get him to pay up by the year and reap these 1000 votes.

Votes are an easy matter to secure, and much work for the future can be saved if you make a clean start and get in the contest early. Many votes have already been polled, and others are coming. The Circulation Department of THE TRIBUNE will be glad to furnish information regarding the contest and communications by mail should be addressed to the Contest Manager, OAKLAND TRIBUNE.

MANNER OF VOTING

A coupon good for one vote will be published in each issue of THE TRIBUNE until the end of the contest. This coupon, if clipped and sent to the Contest Manager of THE TRIBUNE will count as one vote for the contestant named therein.

There is another and better way of securing votes and that is on subscriptions. Votes will be given on all paid-in-advance subscriptions as follows:

Three months $1.95 100 extra votes
Six months $3.90 300 extra votes
One year $7.80 1000 extra votes

Three hundred votes are also given on a classified advertisement coupon book, which contains coupons worth $2.50, but sells for only $2.00.

S. P. EMPLOYEE.

C. A. Marshall, 218 Fifth street, has been entered as the most popular Southern Pacific employee. A $100 solid gold watch will be awarded to some lucky Southern Pacific or Santa Fe employee.

Joe Smith, 267 Sixth street, wants the fine bicycle that will be awarded to an ambitious boy living east of Grove street.

William Gimbel, 521 Pacific avenue, Alameda, has been entered by some of his friends for the $1100 union man's lot. As Gimbel has always been a staunch union man his friends will undoubtedly give him loyal support.

He is financial secretary of Cracker Bakers' Union No. 125, and a prominent member of the Native Sons.

Ralph Purdy is a live ambitious boy living at 267 Fourth avenue who believes the race should be his property. The way to win is to get coupons and subscriptions from your friends.

Robert E. Oliver, 553 Thirty-second street, is a popular boy in his neighborhood, and will make a strong candidate in the race for one of the fine bicycles.

WANTS A TRIP.

Miss Stella Donald, 1417 Oak street, Alameda, would like to take the trip to Yosemite Valley, which includes expenses for two weeks at the Sentinel hotel as well as a few days at El Portal. This trip will be given to some lady and Miss Donald may be the lucky one.

Mrs. E. P. Dixon, 1453 Eighth street, has started a vigorous campaign as the most popular woman in Oakland. An early start is what counts in winning a prize.

The friends of Edwin Meese are enthusiastic about his prospects, and expect to have a ride in the fine Rambler touring car.

George Vestal, 585 East Fifteenth street, has been entered by his friends for the bicycle. It is up to George to get to work and secure votes. His friends will help him if he shows a willingness to help himself.

Frank Joseph, 5 Hannah street, thinks he would like to take the trip to Chicago either in the automobile or by train.

FOR AUTOMOBILE.

Carl M. Anderson, of the Standard Motor Car company, has been entered in the contest for the automobile. He knows a good machine when he sees it and therefore wants the one offered by THE TRIBUNE.

Tom Balch, 1516 Ninth avenue, has a number of schoolmates working in his behalf for the bicycle.

Officer LeStrange, the well known policeman in West Berkeley, is in the race for the fine lot to be given to the most popular post office or police employee in Berkeley. A $500 lot is worth securing, and will make a fine home site for some one.

Secretary Heywood, of the Western Federation of Miners, has been entered as a candidate for the $1100 Union Man's lot. Doubtless some of his admirers intend to secure it for him as an evidence of their approval of his course in labor affairs.

Harry Forrest, 821 Thirty-seventh street, is a popular employee of the Southern Pacific who wants to wear the $100 Howard watch.

Will Mulliken, 3328 Howe street, is a most deserving boy, and one who will secure the assistance of his neighborhood in his contest for a bicycle.

LOSING NO TIME.

Emil C. Hahn, of West Oakland, is losing no time, and has already got a good start in the contest for the most popular man in Alameda county. The automobile looks good to him.

J. D. Scott, the well known letter carrier, thinks the $1050 lot in the Fourth Avenue Terrace would be all right for him. If you have not seen Fourth Avenue Terrace, and especially this lot, you should go out at once.

E. J. Carroll, 1182 Campbell street, has been entered as the most popular salesman by some of his friends. A free trip to Chicago would not be so bad.

D. C. Rosling, 1256 Broadway, is in the race for the most popular man in Alameda county.

Ralph P. Gross, 1183 Brush street, is one of the popular Oakland carriers who has many friends interested in him, and he may yet build his house on the Fourth Avenue Terrace tract.

Luella Cool Walker, 509 Thirteenth street, has been entered as a candidate for the automobile.

Charles T. Partensky, 1870 Fifteenth street, is a well known Southern Pacific employee entered for the $100 Howard solid gold watch.

Thornton Tenny, 1310 Thirteenth avenue, is a bright little chap interested in the fine bicycle offered for his district.

LETTER CARRIER.

George F. Collier, 1312 East Sixteenth street, is one of the oldest letter carriers in point of service. He has many friends on his present and old routes, and will undoubtedly make a strong race for the lot.

Sunset Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F., is the first and only entry for the fine $250 banner to be made by Pasquale & Co. This banner will be awarded to the most popular lodge, union, or organization.

Frank Connelly, 767 East Fifteenth street, is working to obtain a racycle. P. L. White is an active candidate for the automobile. His friends say he will be top-notch when the votes are counted.

"Pop" Ingersoll is not saying much, but he thinks he would enjoy an automobile ride occasionally.

Fred Atchison, 1722 North street, West Berkeley, is a popular fireman, and expects to have an enjoyable trip to Portland. His friends say he will go up in the automobile.

RACYCLE SUITS HIM.

Henry Sieghold, 2120 Kittredge street, says the Racycle suits him. Some of the other Berkeley boys will have something to say about this.

Charles Becker, 1706 Francisco street, is the well known police officer. He knows the value of the Boulevard Garden lot, and says he will carry the deed in his pocket at the end of the contest.

William Reuter, 823 Franklin street, has entered as the most popular Oakland fireman. He will receive many votes as soon as his friends know he is in the contest.

William Cross, the popular salesman in Dean & Humphreys, has gone in the race in earnest, and already has a good start.

GROVE STREET WEST.

Bennie Curran, 1068 Grove street, has been entered by his friends for the Racycle in the district from Grove street west.

Miss Aramanda Metahelt, 1725 University avenue, is one of the most popular young ladies in Berkeley. Her friends predict that she will be in the race for the piano.

George McDermott, 1027 Bancroft way, is a bright energetic Berkeley boy who is determined to win the Racycle or know the reason why.

George Hagerdy, 3130 Adeline street, has determined to secure the prize offered to the most popular fireman.

Miss Lottie Pierocini, 738 Delaware street, is a candidate for the fine piano offered to the most popular young lady in Berkeley. As she has many admirers and friends she will poll a large vote.

Thomas McDermott, 1339 Linden street, is a bright boy who wants a Racycle.

Ed. Long, 5771 San Pablo street, is a popular union man employed at the Jackson Iron Works. He is an enthusiastic bowler, and has the hearty support of his friends in the contest for the $1100 lot.

TRACTION EMPLOYEE.

P. A. Carlson, 210 East Sixteenth street, has not only been in the employ of the Oakland Traction company, for some time, but has made an unexcelled record for efficient service. He is very deserving of the $100 watch.

Miss Gracie Girdner, 1824 Webster street, Alameda, is a popular young lady, and has bright chances of winning a piano.

Howard Pelitter, Fitchburg, is one of the brightest boys at the Lockwood school, and is receiving the hearty co-operation of the other scholars in his contest for the fine Racycle.

Antone Davilla, Alvarado, is a very enterprising boy, and is making a vigorous canvass for votes.

Sudden Attack of Dysentery Cured.

Prominent lady of Brooklyn, N. Y., writes to inquire where she can obtain Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. While stopping at a ranch in South Dakota I was taken ill of what seemed to be cholera. After taking one of these medicine and it cured me. I brought a bottle home and have just used the last of it today. Mother was very kind to send me a bottle and it helped her immediately. For sale by Osgood Bros., Seventh and Broadway, and corner Twelfth and Washington streets.

WANTS KNOUT FOR POLICE

Commissioners to Investigate the Charges Filed Against Two Patrolmen.

Timothy Moriarty of 987 Park way, East Oakland, has made affidavit and filed the same with the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners this morning, that Police Officers Brock and Dutton, a few nights ago, dragged him out of his bed about midnight, separating him from his five-months-old baby, threw him into jail without cause, and otherwise treated him in the same manner that a Russian serf is treated by Cossacks. He asks the commissioners to apply to the alleged offenders, the knout with which their alleged Russian prototypes inflict the suffering peasantry of the empire of the czar. The complaint referred to, and which the commissioners will investigate is as follows:

"That petitioner and complainant is an American citizen, and has been continually a resident and taxpayer of the city of Oakland for nearly twenty years, last past.

"That on the 31st day of August, 1907, at the midnight hour, while this petitioner was nursing his infant son, of the age of five months, in the absence of his mother, two police officers, the names of which I do not know, entered the complainant's dwelling, and then knocked upon his bedroom door and demanded that he get up and open the door and come out, that they would allow him only five minutes to get up, dress, and open the door, and that if he failed to obey their commands they would break down the door.

"That complainant had committed no public offense of any kind or character, but fearing that these officers who were in the employ of the city and supposed to guard and protect property would carry out their threat, as they had already indicated and threatened to do, he opened the door, without a warrant, and without authority of law, complainant opened the door and allowed them to enter instead of killing them, which any quick tempered person might have done, and take charge of his life or liberty before a jury of his peers.

TAKEN TO JAIL

"That these two intelligent Cossacks placed complainant in a branch jail at East Oakland and compelled him to remain therein until the police authorities arrived and conveyed him to the Oakland city jail where he was searched and greatly humiliated.

"That complainant would probably still be confined in said city jail if he was so unfortunate as to have less than $500 in his pocket, for the amount which was exacted and paid for his liberty (said money has since been returned) and at 3 o'clock in the morning complainant was released and allowed to pursue his way along the lonely road to East Oakland, without being held up, robbed or molested by any other of Oakland's police officers, and probably should be thankful for having escaped the fate of many belated pedestrians in that regard.

ABSENT FROM WORK

"The following morning, complainant was compelled to attend the session of the police court and to be absent from his work in order to prevent his being arrested. That by reason of the ignorance and incompetence of said police officers in dragging complainant out of his bed, and away from his five-months-old infant son, he has suffered humiliation and loss of money, and he feels that he has received the treatment accorded to a Russian serf by Cossacks.

"Complainant has resided in this city for nearly twenty years and during that time has been a taxpayer therein, and feels that he has been insulted and humiliated by the very people for whose feeding and upholding he has contributed.

WANTS INVESTIGATION

"Therefore, complainant, requests, after a fair and full investigation of these verified charges, if your honorable body finds the same to be true, that you apply the knout to these verified charges, and if you find them to be true, complainant respectfully request that you relegate these two Cossacks to the realm of the Czar of Russia, to wit: Charles Brock and John Dutton, where they certainly belong."

Suffered from a nervous headache for several months without being able to get any relief. I was advised to consult you. I did so and the result was that the headache passed away after four weeks' treatment. I therefore recommend you as a skillful physician in the treatment of nervous disorders caused by repeated colds. Very sincerely yours,
CHAS. G. MAYBORN.

Cures Without Drugs
Wonderful Invention Restores Health by Nature's Method

There's no need of rubbing your stomach by dosing it with drugs, trying to overcome pain or some chronic ailment. No need of doctor and drug bills, for here is a remedy that cures Nature's way.

Most of the ailments of mankind are due to the failure or breaking down of the stomach, kidneys, liver or digestive organs. When one of these organs fails to work properly, something happens, pain, distress or various chronic ailments result.

The reason why organs break down or fail to work properly is because it lacks motive power—electricity. That is proven. Now to cure pain or disease you must move it. If it is caused by lack of electric energy restore it. Where it is needed and pain and sickness will disappear. That is my method. That's Nature's method. Electricity builds up, supplies strength—nourishment to the body. Drugs destroy it, down because they contain poison instead of nourishment. Of course, they can force an organ to act but that organ is weaker after the effect of the drug has passed off. Drugs stop pain temporarily by stupefying the nerves, but the pain comes back and you have to take the drug again. Every dose weakens the nerves.

Electro-Vigor is an electric body battery applied while you sleep, putting a stream of electric life into every nerve and tissue of the body, building up vitality and strength and removing the cause of disease.

Electricity, as applied by Electro-Vigor, does not shock or blister. The only sensation is a soothing glow.

Electro-Vigor is not an electric coil. It never needs charging, for it makes its own power continuously. Electro-Vigor has proven a great success in curing people who to or the West from drugs had failed to benefit.

Electro-Vigor has cured me completely of a very bad case of stomach trouble, and I now have no ailment any more. I feel like a new man. ALVIN H. BONTAUC, Altaville, Cal.

Five years ago I suffered from sciatica, during which time I tried doctors, drugs and mineral springs without relief. I got your high-power Electro-Vigor and was completely cured in three months. J. O. L. MATHESON, Xmas City, Cal.

Jellies, Jams and Preserves of Your Grocer

You will enjoy their true delicate natural flavor, the perfect purity and beautiful color and never buy another.

The "SUNLIT" brand will cost you more than other first-class brands, but some grocers prefer to sell inferior brands on which they make a larger profit; therefore, it is necessary to insist on having the "SUNLIT" Jellies, Juices and Preserves.

Many of the leading grocers are willing to supply their customers with the best of everything in their line and consequently are selling the "SUNLIT" brand.

We give below the names of the grocers who are now selling the "SUNLIT" brand:

STEINWAY AND OTHER PIANOS
VICTOR TALKING MACHINES

The Steinway Is The Only Piano You Can Afford To Buy

—Your pian indicates the standard of your musical taste, reflects the degree of your musical ability, controls your musical accomplishments, moulds the musical future of your household. The best music requires the best medium for its interpretation. The Steinway is the only piano you can afford to buy.

—You buy piano as you build a home—once for all. It is something from which you have a right to expect exquisite delight as long as you live, and which should be a precious legacy to your children. The best musical qualities and the best construction go together—one is the result of the other. The Steinway is the only piano you can afford to buy.

—Come in and listen to the Steinways—or try them: at your pleasure. The marvelous Vertegrand—the effect of a grand piano in an upright case—$525 upward; real grand pianos from $800 on to where space or fancy of decoration fixes the limit. After trial, you will realize why the Steinway is the only piano you can afford to buy.
